The largest charitable polo event in the country

Duke Beardsley, "Ride-Off"

An event of the Denver Active 20-30
Children's Foundation benefiting at-risk and disadvantaged children
Congratulating Denver Active 20-30 Children’s Foundation benefiting at-risk and disadvantaged children for 32 years of philanthropic service.

Proud to join your collaboration of sponsors.
Welcome to the 2019 Denver Polo Classic presented by Schomp BMW!

We warmly and appreciatively welcome you to the 32nd Annual Denver Polo Classic, the largest charitable polo event in the country. Without the continued support of you – our dedicated patrons – this event would not be the success it has been for more than 3 decades.

Members of Denver Active 20-30 Children’s Foundation, both past and present, would like to express our sincere gratitude. For 32 years, members of the Foundation have brought the “Sport of Kings” to Denver as our premier fundraising event to further our mission of contributing to the betterment and welfare of local at-risk children. Due to your support, in 2018 we granted more than $857,000 to 60+ local children’s charities, bringing the total we’ve invested to more than $11 million since our inception.

There is a lot to look forward to this weekend, beginning with the Kirkpatrick Bank Black Tie Dinner and Auction. Chef-Owner Alex Seidel of Fruition Restaurant and Mercantile Dining & Provision serves his James Beard Award-winning cuisine to event and major sponsors on the field. Under the big tent, patrons enjoy incredible fare from Morton’s. All guests partake in a full open bar with Ketel One vodka, Bulleit Bourbon, Don Julio tequila, Carboy wines, and Stella Artois. Our live and silent auctions feature an exciting array of items including official Denver Polo Classic artwork from world-renowned local artist Duke Beardsley. Crowd favorite, the Funkiphino All-Stars, elevate the evening with lively dance music.

Relieve your babysitter on Saturday! Noble Energy Family Day offers our special V.I.Kid’s area full of activities for our younger polo enthusiasts. Activities include JetLinx-sponsored pony rides, a photo booth with fun dress-up items for the kids, face-painters, and frozen yogurt. In addition to these activities, sample tasty bites from some of Denver’s finest restaurants, visit flowing open bars, and get in on the silent auction.

The excitement culminates on Alliant Championship Sunday where the 2019 Denver Polo Classic presented by Schomp BMW Champion will be crowned. Once again, sample tasty bites from some of Denver’s finest restaurants, visit flowing open bars, and get in on the silent auction.

Denver Active 20-30 Children’s Foundation has come a long way from our first charitable gift nearly 32 years ago of $1,200 to Denver Kids, Inc.! As we progress into our next 30 years, we are grateful for your continued support. Without you, making a difference in the lives of youth across the great state of Colorado would be impossible.

Thank You!

DA20-30 PRESIDENT

Max Gansline

Serving as the 2018-2019 President of Denver Active 20-30 Children’s Foundation, Max is dedicated to raising money to transform the lives of at-risk and disadvantaged youth across the state. As a member of Denver Active 20-30 for 7 years and a Denver resident since 2005, he has watched the community flourish, but is innately aware that although Denver is thriving, more and more families continue to fall below the poverty line.

As a long-time member of the Grant Review Committee, his passion to ensure the Foundation’s stewardship of donor dollars is paramount. Max has chaired the Raffle Committee for 6 years and has proudly assisted in raising more than $200,000 during that period. In addition to his role with Denver Active 20-30, Max sits on the Board of Directors of Denver Kids, Inc., an organization committed to keeping students in Denver Public Schools engaged and on track to complete high school and become empowered to positively shape their lives.

Max is the Regional Director operating The Staubenberg Group’s Denver Office. His primary responsibilities include the development and leasing of open-air shopping centers throughout the Rocky Mountain Region. He is a proud graduate of The Leeds School of Business at the University of Colorado Boulder, as well as a licensed Employing Real Estate Broker in the State of Colorado. When not earning a living or fundraising for youth, one of Max’s greatest passions is international travel, most recently having experienced Cuba, Tokyo, Thailand, and South Korea with his beautiful fiancée, Kaydee.

The Denver Active 20-30 Children’s Foundation is a non-profit service organization for business leaders between the ages of 20 and 39. Chartered under Active 20-30 International, the Foundation members represent a diversity of professional backgrounds. The mission of the Foundation is to develop philanthropic leaders who mobilize the community to impact the lives of disadvantaged children through annual fund-raising events and projects. Since our inception in 1987, events hosted by Denver Active 20-30 have raised more than $11 million.

The 32-year old foundation is dedicated to contributing to the betterment and welfare of under-served children in the local community. In its efforts to help others, each member also strives to develop character, to become a better citizen, and learn to live and to appreciate a fuller and richer life. In addition, the organization strives to raise the community’s awareness of the need to care for underprivileged children in the state of Colorado through fundraising and hands-on community service.

Who We Fund:

For the past three decades, Denver Active 20-30 has been changing the trajectories of children in Colorado through financial grants to organizations that directly support at-risk, disadvantaged children in our community. But, that’s not all. We also go deeper with a few select charities providing business and other supporting activities to help those organizations grow and thrive. Our membership is composed of young, talented professionals who bring experience and fresh ideas to the table. Receiving support from Denver Active 20-30 is not easy, but it’s worth it. We accept grant applications May 1 – July 31 every year.

Funding Strategy:

At Denver Active 20-30, we’ve developed a strategic grant giving strategy that’s aimed at breaking the cycle of poverty among children during their formative years. Obviously, there are many nonprofits doing amazing work in our community. But, we choose to partner with those that have the greatest impact on four areas of a child’s life: Education, Health & Wellbeing, Child Advocacy, and Personal Enrichment.

For more information about our mission and our events, please visit our website: www.da2030.org.

Thank you all for your generous support of the 2019 Denver Polo Classic presented by Schomp BMW, and enjoy the weekend!

“A man never stands so tall as when kneeling to help a child.”
OUR EVENTS

The Christmas for Kids fundraiser is an event sponsored and coordinated through the Denver Active 20-30 Children’s Foundation. This event provides underprivileged Denver-area children the opportunity to share holiday gifts with others, which many wouldn’t otherwise be able to experience.

As these children plow through the store, they listen, learn to budget, and develop a shopping list which focuses on other people. Then, after a wild time at the gift wrap tables we’ve set up for them, they’ll leave with brightly colored wrapped packages stuffed in shopping bags for their families. And we’ve been known to surprise them with a “goodie bag” at the end, as a reward.

Many of you are committed to worthwhile charities and events during the holiday season. However, if you’d like to open your heart to assist us with this most special of all our events, your donations would be greatly appreciated. Each child receives $100 with which to budget. Every donation we receive gets us closer to the goal of ensuring that these kids have an enjoyable holiday season.

We accept donations year-round. If you would like to Give the Gift of Christmas to a child this year, or would like more information about this incredible event please visit: da2030.org/christmas-for-kids/

Thank you all again, and Happy (Early) Holidays!

NAIOP FIGHT NIGHT

In October 2018, NAIOP Colorado (Commercial Real Estate Development Association) and Denver Active 20-30 continued our partnership to bolster the support of at-risk and disadvantaged children in the Denver area through NAIOP Fight Night. In a single evening, guests and sponsoring affiliates raised nearly $20,000 in raffle funds for 2018 – increasing the total amount raised to more than $110,000 since the inception of Fight Night in 2013.

The NAIOP Colorado Chapter is excited to be hosting the 7th Anniversary Fight Night Benefitting Denver Active 20-30 on October 3, 2019, at the EXDO Event Center in Denver’s urban RiNo neighborhood. This year’s event also commemorates the 7th Anniversary of the NAIOP 20-30 partnership.

Once again, Denver’s Top Commercial Real Estate professionals and Colorado’s finest in the ring will gather for an exceptional evening of boxing, business and the most heart pumping real estate event of the year! In addition, the evening will feature the “Denver Active 20-30 White Collar Brawlers Bout” - an amateur fight between two NAIOP Colorado or Denver Active Members. For more details regarding Fight Night 2019 and raffle ticket sales, please visit: www.naiop-colorado.org/Events/ or www.da2030.org/fight-night-raffle/

We hope to see you at Fight Night 2019!
Our eight annual golf classic – but first-ever Alliant Leaders Fore Kids Golf Classic presented by RE/MAX LLC – was held Thursday, June 6, 2019, at The Sanctuary Golf Course. Foursome sponsors and guests were treated to brunch sponsored by Ward Electric, drinks and libations, and catered dinner courtesy of Kohler Signature Store of Cherry Creek in the breathtaking clubhouse nestled among unrivaled scenery in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains of Colorado.

The unique and prestigious Sanctuary course is known for its elevated tees, towering pines, and 180-degree mountain views encompassing Pikes Peak to the south and Longs Peak to the north. Designed by award-winning architect Jim Engh, the course’s dramatic Front Range and mountain vistas are rivaled only by a design that tests players’ shot-making ability.

PRIZES
The winning foursome received four (4) press club tickets in the Owners Box for any Colorado Rockies game the rest of this season or next. The hole-in-one winner teed off on Hole #14 for a 2019 BMW sponsored by Schomp BMW. Break the Glass competitors vied for free tickets to the Denver Barn Party coming up September 28, 2019.

A POLO 101 OVERVIEW

THE GAME
Six Chukkers (periods), seven minutes each. The field is 300 yards long and 160 yards wide. On the end line at each end are goal posts, eighteen feet apart. Points are scored by hitting the ball between the posts. Each time a goal is scored the teams change direction of play. It’s like hockey on horseback. It’s legal to “hook” the hitter’s mallet and it’s okay to ram into your opponent during the play. The game is very physical and can be dangerous. In between chukkers there is a two-minute break for players to change ponies. After three chukkers there is a five-minute “half time.” With time-outs for penalties and the like, a typical match lasts one-and-a-half hours.

PLAYERS
There are four players on the field for each team, wearing a jersey numbered 1 through 4. The roles of each player are:

#1 The Forward. Always out in front – should score most of the goals.
#2 The Hustler. Quick and aggressive with fast ponies.
#3 The Pivot. The quarterback and captain. Has to hit a long shot.
#4 The Back Defender. There are no goalies. It’s his job to stop the goal shots.

Helmets are required, and some have face masks. Most players wear padded knee guards and they all have to wear boots.

THE HORSE
They are called ponies. Most are former race horses, high-speed thoroughbreds with exceptional abilities. The tail is braided to stay out of the way of the mallet. The mane is clipped so the player can see the ball, and also to keep the animal cool. The ideal is for each player to have six ponies – one for each chukker – however some players have as few as three ponies for the match.

THE SHOTS

HANDICAP
Players are rated on a scale of minus-2 to 10. Beginners start at minus-2. Only eight players in the world are 10, none in the U.S. About 96 percent of all U.S. players have a handicap of 2 or less, and some with a handicap of 2 or more are considered professional. In handicap matches, each team adds up the ratings of its players to arrive at a team rating. The difference of the two teams’ ratings is awarded as points to the lesser-skilled team as the beginning score of a handicap match.

FOUL
When you hear the umpire blow the whistle, it’s just like basketball – somebody fouled. The other team gets a free hit. The most common foul is crossing the line. Forty percent of the points in a game are scored from the foul line.

RULES
Polo is governed by the United States Polo Association. The rules are so complex it takes 55 pages in the USPA Blue Book just to explain them.

IN A NUT SHELL:
Don’t hit your horse or anyone else’s with a mallet. You can’t play left-handed. No dangerous riding. Abusive play and language are not allowed. If a player comes off his or her horse or off the field, the clock can continue to run; if a horse falls down, stop the clock.
POLO PONY
Usually a thoroughbred, selected for their speed, agility, endurance and intelligence. Most players say their ponies account for up to 75% of their game.

Bridle
Different types of bridles are used on polo ponies. Usually a Gag, Pelham or Double bridle, leverage based for quick stops and turns. Bridles are customized to suit each pony.

MARTINGALE / HEAD CHECK
Extends from girth to noseband, inhibits the pony's head from rising up too high and hitting the rider.

DRAW / RUNNING REINS
A pulley design, extended from the girth through the bridle rings to the rider's hands to give better control, which is an important safety precaution when the horses are travelling at high speed.

GIRTH
A wide, flat strap that secures the saddle around the belly of the pony.

BREAST PLATE
Secures the saddle in place, keeps it from sliding back during play.

STIRRUP LEATHERS
Strongly constructed of buffalo hide, these adjustable straps connect the stirrups to the tree of the saddle.

OVERGIRTH
Used in addition to a standard girth, this nylon or leather strap buckles under the pony's belly and over top of the saddle to keep it from shifting during play.

STIRRUPS
Steel loops to support the rider's feet, often with a wide flat base to provide more stability while standing to make a shot.

PELHAM BIT
Used with two sets of reins; one for the curb action of the shanks; and one for the snaffle action of the ring.

GAG BIT
With distinctive cheek pieces that pass through holes in the top and bottom of the bit rings to attach directly to the reins, a gag bridle works on the pony's mouth and poll simultaneously to increase braking and balancing control.

BIT GUARDS
Flat rubber rings fitted on to the sides of a bit to protect the sensitive corners of a pony's mouth.

POLO SADDLE
Leather construction with stirrups. Less padding than a jumping saddle.
POLO PLAYER
Players are rated from C to 10 goals, "C" being a beginner, and 10 goals being the best in the world.

POLO BOOTS
Leather construction to protect legs and a heel to help keep the rider's foot securely in the stirrup.

SADDLE BLANKET
Also called a saddle pad, it must be positioned properly and lay smoothly over the pony's center of gravity. A good blanket helps blood circulate evenly, lets perspiration evaporate, and distributes weight evenly.

BRAIDED TAIL
Minimizes interference with swinging mallets.

POLO WRAPS
Also called bandages, they support and protect a pony's legs from the ball and accidental knocks with the mallet, which are inevitable during play. Made from fabric, they have velcro fasteners at one end and are usually taped for extra security.

KNEE PADS
Provides protection for the rider's knees in case of bumps and falls.

SAFETY GLASSES
These eye protectors are required to withstand the impact of various balls traveling 90 mph. The frames are required to survive the force of a racquet at a velocity of 25 mph.

POLO JERSEY
Showcases team name, colors, and logos, numbered 1-4 to indicate player position.

POLO BREECHES
Regulation white breeches or jeans are traditional for tournament play.

HELMET
Hard surface, lined and strapped, the helmet provides the rider with protection against swinging mallets, airborne balls and spills. The USPA has determined that a polo helmet should be light in weight, but must also have a durable or hard shell to structurally support a face mask which will remain intact if a horse rolls over it.

CLIPPED MANE
Eliminates interference of pony's mane with player's rein hand.

POLO BALL
The white plastic or wooden ball, 10" in circumference, is struck by the side of the mallet. Indoor or Arena polo uses an inflated ball, which looks like a small soccer ball. Because an Arena is smaller than an outdoor polo ground, this makes it safer in a confined space. It is leather covered with a circumference of 14.5".

TENDON BOOTS
Hard plastic or leather boots strapped over bandages to further protect the pony's legs from impact.

MALLETS
Made of a bamboo shaft with a hardwood head. The head is bevelled on one end (77.5 degrees) to allow for a full swing, flush to the ground. Shafts are very flexible and can make a complete arc under the pony's neck or tail when swung hard. Available in lengths of 48" to 54", mallets are chosen by players to best fit their swing and size of pony.

A BIG CHANGE is in store for the Denver Barn Party: it’s moved to September 28, 2019! This year’s event will raise the bar even higher on one of Denver’s best country music events.

The 2018 Denver Barn Party presented by Noble Energy was held on May 12, 2018, at The Stables at Polo Reserve. A sold-out crowd of over 2,400 guests came out to enjoy the food, drink, people, and our headliner Midland (winners of the New Vocal Duo or Group award at the Academy of Country Music Awards and Grammy nominee). Crowd favorite Black Jack Billy also rocked the stage.

The Denver Barn Party set a record for sponsorships, attendance and fundraising totals with net proceeds in excess of $180,000 benefiting disadvantaged and at-risk youth in Colorado! Thank you to the sponsors displayed below for their support in 2018.

Also, thank you to the J-5 Equestrian team and membership of the Foundation for all the hard work required to make this happen. Access to the beautiful Columbine Equestrian Center is truly a privilege! Finally, we thank our guests for their support and their continued generosity in supporting this great event for an even better cause.

Get ready to kick up your heels on September 28, 2019, at this year’s Denver Barn Party! More event and ticketing information available here: www.da2030.org/denver-barn-party/
